NV La Tordera Saome Prosecco DOC Brut (Veneto, Italy)

Wine - Sparkling $22.99 (750mL)

A deVine bestseller has returned after a long absence.

The grapes from which this wine is obtained come from a vineyard in "Saomè", a small portion of land in the village of Bigolino, in Valdobbiadene. This is the high Piave river valley, where the soil is made of layers of gravel and sand, allowing a good water drainage, although the area is quite rainy.

Bright straw-yellow in color with green shades. Nose of apples, Mediterranean herbs, vanilla pod and acacia flowers. The palate is very well balanced, fresh and lively. Very fine grained foamy bubbles that tickles the palate. This is a step up on a lot of other Prosecco's at this price point. Uniquely shaped 14th century circa Louis XIV era shaped bottle. Highly recommended. Try with a fish course.

2021 Domaine Lafage Novellum Chardonnay (Cotes Catalanes, France)

Wine - White $24.49 (750mL)

The medium-bodied 2021 Novellum Chardonnay aged on Viognier lees for textural enrichment, plus 15% of the volume spends a month in new oak, the rest in steel. Pear and melon fruit up front give way to crisp notes of tinned pineapple on the finish. This is well balanced. Try with a meaty fish course.

2021 Domaine Serge Dagueneau & Filles Pouilly Fume Tradition (Loire Valley, France)

Wine - White $35.99 (750mL)

Fabulous Sauvignon Blanc from one of the masters of the region. Pale yellow in the glass, shows citrus, herbs and grassy aromas, stoney minerality on the palate and a delicate acidity. Screams for oysters!
